ROBERT CUTLER
CHAIRMAN

July 9, 1959

Dear Allen:

I have finally finished the sixth (and I hope, final, revision) of my proposed paper entitled, "The Role of Intelligence in Forming National Security Policy within the Executive Branch," which I have prepared in response to your April request that I write something for "Studies in Intelligence."

I have checked the accuracy of the statements in the article with [redacted] and included some suggestions which they made.

As finally revised, I enclose two copies of the article. I hope it may be useful. I have been over it so many times that it hardly makes any sense at all to me as of the present date.

It was so nice seeing you last week at supper with Lewis and Alice and Janet. Janet is certainly a remarkable woman; I was deeply impressed with her bearing and general interest in current events. I felt distressed that you seemed poorly; but I suppose you will never be able fully to forget what a wonderful brother you have lost.

As ever your friend

Robert Cutler

Dear Bill:

I have your letter of June 15, 1959. I should naturally be glad to be of any help, although, as you know, I am keeping strictly out of politics these days. In case I should see the Governor, as I do from time to time, I should be glad to speak to him.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Craig:

Thank you very much for your letter of 11 June inviting Mrs. Cabell and me to be guests at one of your Institute's sessions this summer.

Unfortunately my commitments over the next few months are such that it will be impossible for us to accept your kind invitation. Your thoughtfulness in asking us to join with you is most appreciated, and we wish you a most successful seminar.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,
